

Just as any homeowner has the right not to let a stranger into there home, Jersey residents should be able to shield and protect their privacy from unwanted phone harassment. Families get so little time together... I am sick of our dinner being interrupted by telamarketers!!